Your Daily Time with God

Our relationship with our Lord is based on our personal knowledge of Him. The more you know Him for who He really is the deeper your relationship with Him will be. If we seek God earnestly, will know Him intimately. “And you will seek Me and find Me, when you search for Me with all your heart” (Jeremiah 29:13).

Developing a personal relationship requires time spent with Him. As we spend time with Him in His Word and in prayer, we get to know Him.

   Everything else flows out of our relationship with Him.
   “I am the vine, you are the branches. He who abides in Me, and I in him, bears much fruit; for without Me you can do nothing” (John 15:5).

Time spent with God is not just time well spent, but time spent in the best possible way.

    Schedule daily time in His presence.

    Additionally, plan and spend extended time seeking Him in Word and prayer.
Psalm 84:5-7
5 Blessed is the man whose strength is in You, Whose heart is set on pilgrimage.
6 As they pass through the Valley of Baca, They make it a spring; The rain also covers it with pools.
7 They go from strength to strength; Each one appears before God in Zion.

Our journey through life is like a pilgrimage. Our journey will take us through different kinds of terrain. There are times we may pass through the valley of Baca, a valley of weeping. Not a literal valley, but any place of tears; a valley with bushes and thorns, which could not be passed without labor and tears. As we make this journey, even through the valley of weeping, we are to go from strength to strength, increasing in strength.

In order to go from strength to strength, we need to CONSOLIDATE:
✓ strengthen your hold on what you have
✓ raise up your defenses and secure what is yours
✓ solidify your standing making yourself firm and unshakable

This is a word of instruction. Something we need to act on. Do this in every area of your life—your spiritual life, personal life (family, marriage, children, finance) and professional life. Carefully consolidate what God has released and entrusted you with.

WHY CONSOLIDATE?
#1, So that you don’t lose what you have
#2, So that you don’t let someone take away what is yours
#3, So that you don’t lose ground you have gained
#4, So that you are ready to transition to the next level

HOW DO YOU CONSOLIDATE?
#1, Reflect on your victories
#2, Learn from your struggles
#3, Refuse to tolerate what weakens you
#4, Do away with the unnecessary
#5, Wait on the Lord. Ask God to strengthen you. Receive His wisdom.
Write down specific things you will do in 2016 to CONSOLIDATE in every area of your life:
JOURNEYING TOGETHER
How to use this daily prayer and Bible reading guide

This book is only intended as a guide. It is not a law or a rule book. Use each day’s content to the extent you are able to.

We are following a Bible reading plan that is designed to take us through the Old and New Testaments in two years, and through the Psalms and Proverbs four times during this two year period. This plan prepared by Stephen Witmer is based on the book “How to Read the Bible Book by Book”, by Gordon Feeand Douglas Stuart, Zondervan 2002. We recommend using the New King James Version of the Bible.

1. As you come to the Word each morning, ask God to open your eyes to see what you have not see before. “Open my eyes, that I may see Wondrous things from Your law” (Psalm 119:18). “He awakens Me morning by morning, He awakens My ear To hear as the learned” (Isaiah 50:4).

2. Don’t just read but engage with what you are reading. Reflect, ask questions, pray for answers, see how this applies to what you are going through in life presently.

3. Read the given chapters for each day, but look for a specific thought—something that gets your attention, which you can meditate on. Focus on it. Reflect on it. Memorize it. Recall that thought during the course of your day.

4. There will be some passages that may be difficult to understand. Some may seem irrelevant and boring. Remember 2 Timothy 3:16,17: “All Scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness, that the man of God may be complete, thoroughly equipped for every good work.” Ask God to speak to you and help you take something away from your reading. Pause. Listen.

5. Look for ways in which you can practically apply what you’re reading. Are there changes you need to make, things you need to do, attitudes that need to change, sins that need to be repented of, etc. “But be doers of the word, and not hearers only, deceiving yourselves” (James 1:22).

6. Pray based on what you have read. After you read a passage, pray that passage for yourself and for family and friends. In addition use the prayer guide to pray for yourself, family, friends, our local church, our city and one state/UT in our nation.

7. Make your declaration. We release our faith by the words we speak (Matthew 17:20). God’s Word is our weapon, our sword against the enemy (Ephesians 6:17).

8. Memorize scripture. We repeat the same verse for an entire week. Take time to memorize it so that the Word is stored up inside of you.

9. If possible, form a small group (E.g, of 3 people) and share what you have learnt through your reading and time of prayer. The result of reading, praying and sharing as a community is powerful. You can share with each other in person or electronically. Pray together if possible.

OUR DECLARATION

This is God’s Word.
This is God speaking to me.
I am who God says I am.
I can do what God says I can do.
I will become everything God has promised.
I am saved, healed, delivered, redeemed.
I am blessed, victorious, prosperous, triumphant.
I am a minister of God, a servant of Christ and a channel of His blessing to many people.
I receive His Word, believe His Word, and live by His Word.
Christ is my Master, and to Him I am in absolute surrender.
AT APC, WE BELIEVE...

Who I am in Christ, is who I really am.

God has places He wants you to go, people He wants you to meet, lives He wants you to touch and things He wants you to do, for His Kingdom.

Every believer is a minister.

Our desire is to be a people who are His dwelling place and a people who manifest His glory, in an ever increasing measure.

We are an apostolic and prophetic church. As a prophetic people we walk in tune with His heart, hearing from heaven. As an apostolic people we step out and do things that have not been done before.

We desire to walk in revival and be carriers of revival, so that everywhere we go, we set people ablaze with the fires of revival.

So I sought for a man among them who would make a wall, and stand in the gap before Me on behalf of the land, that I should not destroy it; but I found no one (Ezekiel 22:30).

After this I looked and there before me was a great multitude that no one could count, from every nation, tribe, people and language, standing before the throne and in front of the Lamb (Revelation 7:9).

How will you respond — will you have a heart for our nation?

While challenges exist, the opportunities are great. What will you do?
We need to engage to reach both: India’s village/Rural population AND India’s urban population (cities).

Here are some practical ways you can engage with what APC is doing as a local church:

#1, Adopt a state in prayer
Pray for any of India’s states that God lays on your heart.
Research and find out what God is doing and what the needs of that state are and pray faithfully for that state.

#2, Adopt a community/people group in prayer
Adopt a people group or community anywhere in our nation, learn about them and pray for them.

#3, Be part of APC’s short term missions
In our short term missions work our focus is to (A)Equip Christian Pastors/Leaders and (B)Strengthen and equip believers. We desire to be carriers of revival and ignite revival fires wherever we go across our nation.

#4, Be part of APC’s church planting movement
Will you be willing to go to another part of our country plant and pastor a local church, either in any of India’s urban centers (cities) or small towns? We want to establish strong local churches that will impact their communities and bring powerful visitations of God into that region.

#5, Provide missionary care (financially empowering those on the ground)
Give financially to help APC support more people on the ground who are serving the Lord across North India.

#6, Support APC’s Publications ministry
Give to support APC’s publications ministry. We do believe that we must give our tithe to the local church and also support the work through additional offerings. A major part of the finances we receive goes into providing free publications to people across our nation in English and regional languages.

#7, Support APC’s Bible College and serve in our Short Term Schools
Through our Bible college (2-year) and our Short Term Schools (10 weeks) we train and release men and women into the ministry. Plan on going out to teach at our Short Term Schools.
