

Our Final Exam - Activity

Ask the group to suggest 3 important life questions that each of us must consider during our lifetime.

Suggestions for questions you can use –

1. Why am I alive?
2. How do I decide what is right or wrong, good or bad in my everyday choices?
3. What is the end goal of my life?

Have each person share their answer to the questions in small groups (led by a volunteer)

Conclusion: There are big life questions whose answers influence the way we live every day. How often do we think about these questions and our answers to them? Today we will look at another big question that we must consider that not only influences our lives now, but goes beyond our life.
