

Sunday April 22, 2007 Prayer Series (Part-8) Intercessory Prayer-1

Review

Today's Message

Intercession is simply going to God on behalf of some one else.

1. People need intercessors

Job 9:32,33

Vs 33 "daysman", "mediator" Heb. yawkakh

Job 16:20,21

One might plead Heb. yawkakh

Job longed for a mediator, some one who would plead his case before God.

An intercessor is a mediator. one who pleads another's case before God.

2. Jesus our Intercessor

A. Christ's work of intercession on the Cross

Isaiah 53:12

".....he bore the sin of many and made intercession for the transgressors"

Bore Heb. nasa = to lift, carry away burden

Intercession Heb. paga = to meet

Same word paga in Isaiah 53:6 is translated "has laid"

In one sense, Christ's work on Calvary's cross was a work of intercession.

1 Timothy 2:5

Mediator Gr. mesites = a go between, a reconciler, intercessor

His intercession on the Cross was not a prayer He prayed, rather a work He did – He carried our burdens.

An intercessor is some one who carries another's burdens.

B. Christ's present intercession before the Father

Romans 8:34 Hebrews 7:25 9:24

The Lord Jesus is in the presence of the Father, appearing on our behalf. He is meeting the Father on our behalf, as our Advocate (1 John 2:1 Advocate = one who pleads another's cause, an intercessor).

NOTE: He is not doing our praying for us. In John 16:26, He told us that we need to do the asking and that He will not ask for us.

So here we see another dimension of intercession. An intercessor is one who meets with God on behalf of another.

“He is our great Intercessor. He is the great Intercessor for all mankind. As members of His Body, the Church, we partake in that intercession.” – Wilford Reidt

Therefore, our intercession will find its pattern in Him.

3. God looks for intercessors

Isaiah 59:16 Ezekiel 22:30 Jeremiah 29:7 Isaiah 62:6,7
