Easter Sunday Sermon : Resurrection Psalms

Luke 24:13-27

13 Now behold, two of them were traveling that same day to a village called Emmaus, which was seven miles from Jerusalem.

14 And they talked together of all these things which had happened.

15 So it was, while they conversed and reasoned, that Jesus Himself drew near and went with them.

16 But their eyes were restrained, so that they did not know Him.

17 And He said to them, "What kind of conversation is this that you have with one another as you walk and are sad?"

18 Then the one whose name was Cleopas answered and said to Him, "Are You the only stranger in Jerusalem, and have You not known the things which happened there in these days?"

19 And He said to them, "What things?" So they said to Him, "The things concerning Jesus of Nazareth, who was a Prophet mighty in deed and word before God and all the people,

20 and how the chief priests and our rulers delivered Him to be condemned to death, and crucified Him.

21 But we were hoping that it was He who was going to redeem Israel. Indeed, besides all this, today is the third day since these things happened.

22 Yes, and certain women of our company, who arrived at the tomb early, astonished us.

23 When they did not find His body, they came saying that they had also seen a vision of angels who said He was alive.

24 And certain of those who were with us went to the tomb and found it just as the women had said; but Him they did not see."

25 Then He said to them, "O foolish ones, and slow of heart to believe in all that the prophets have spoken!

26 Ought not the Christ to have suffered these things and to enter into His glory?"

27 And beginning at Moses and all the Prophets, He expounded to them in all the Scriptures the things concerning Himself.

We wish to bring our attention to the fact that from the Old Testament, the Lord Jesus pointed out the Scriptures that spoke of Himself. During His earthly ministry, Jesus had pointed to the Scriptures stating, "You search the Scriptures, for in them you think you have eternal life; and these are they which testify of Me. " (John 5:39).

Acts 2:29-32

29 "Men and brethren, let me speak freely to you of the patriarch David, that he is both dead and buried, and his tomb is with us to this day.

30 Therefore, being a prophet, and knowing that God had sworn with an oath to him that of the fruit of his body, according to the flesh, He would raise up the Christ to sit on his throne,

31 he, foreseeing this, spoke concerning the resurrection of the Christ, that His soul was not left in Hades, nor did His flesh see corruption.

32 This Jesus God has raised up, of which we are all witnesses.

David lived about 1000 years before Christ. Peter in his inaugural sermon quotes from the Old Testament Scriptures, pointing out that David was a prophet of God. David knew through what God had revealed to him that one of his descendants would be the Christ, the Messiah, who would be Ruler on his throne. He also saw and spoke ahead of time about the resurrection of Christ.

Today, we would like to look at a few Resurrection Psalms, specifically three Psalms written by David, that foretell the resurrection of our Lord Jesus Christ.

We will read Psalm 2, Psalm 16, and Psalm 110. These are all short Psalms.

Psalm 2:1-12

A psalm of David

1 Why do the nations rage, And the people plot a vain thing?

2 The kings of the earth set themselves, And the rulers take counsel together, Against the LORD and against His Anointed, saying,

3 "Let us break Their bonds in pieces And cast away Their cords from us."

4 He who sits in the heavens shall laugh; The LORD shall hold them in derision.

5 Then He shall speak to them in His wrath, And distress them in His deep displeasure:

6 "Yet I have set My King On My holy hill of Zion."

7 "I will declare the decree: The LORD has said to Me, 'You are My Son, Today I have begotten You.

8 Ask of Me, and I will give You The nations for Your inheritance, And the ends of the earth for Your possession.

9 You shall break them with a rod of iron; You shall dash them to pieces like a potter's vessel.' "

10 Now therefore, be wise, O kings; Be instructed, you judges of the earth.

11 Serve the LORD with fear, And rejoice with trembling.

12 Kiss the Son, lest He be angry, And you perish in the way, When His wrath is kindled but a little. Blessed are all those who put their trust in Him.

Psalms 16:1-11

A psalm of David

1 Preserve me, O God, for in You I put my trust.

2 O my soul, you have said to the LORD, "You are my Lord, My goodness is nothing apart from You."

3 As for the saints who are on the earth, "They are the excellent ones, in whom is all my delight."

4 Their sorrows shall be multiplied who hasten after another god; Their drink offerings of blood I will not offer, Nor take up their names on my lips.

5 O LORD, You are the portion of my inheritance and my cup; You maintain my lot.

6 The lines have fallen to me in pleasant places; Yes, I have a good inheritance.

7 I will bless the LORD who has given me counsel; My heart also instructs me in the night seasons.

8 I have set the LORD always before me; Because He is at my right hand I shall not be moved.

9 Therefore my heart is glad, and my glory rejoices; My flesh also will rest in hope.

10 For You will not leave my soul in Sheol, Nor will You allow Your Holy One to see corruption.

11 You will show me the path of life; In Your presence is fullness of joy; At Your right hand are pleasures forevermore.

Psalms 110:1-7

A psalm of David

1 The LORD said to my Lord, "Sit at My right hand, Till I make Your enemies Your footstool."

2 The LORD shall send the rod of Your strength out of Zion. Rule in the midst of Your enemies!

3 Your people shall be volunteers In the day of Your power; In the beauties of holiness, from the womb of the morning, You have the dew of Your youth.

4 The LORD has sworn And will not relent, "You are a priest forever According to the order of Melchizedek."

5 The Lord is at Your right hand; He shall execute kings in the day of His wrath.

6 He shall judge among the nations, He shall fill the places with dead bodies, He shall execute the heads of many countries.

7 He shall drink of the brook by the wayside; Therefore He shall lift up the head.

Psalm 110 is a powerful Psalm that reveals Jesus as King and Priest. This Psalm is one of the Old Testament text that is most quoted in the New Testament.

KEY HIGHLIGHTS FROM RESURRECTION PSALMS

Let us highlight a few truths from these three Psalms.

(Please go through each thought quickly. Do not elaborate too much, else the sermon will become too long. We do not have to read the Scripture references again. These are listed below for our understanding based on which these statements are made. Just mention the references and explain briefly the truth they present.)

#1, YOU ARE MY SON, I HAVE BEGOTTEN YOU (Psalm 2:7; Psalm 16:1-7)

Psalm 2

7 "I will declare the decree: The LORD has said to Me, 'You are My Son, Today I have begotten You.

This is a powerful ANNOUNCEMENT OF THE INCARNATION.

Psalm 2:7 is quoted in several places in the New Testament referring to the Incarnation and the earthly life of Christ.

In Acts 13 as the apostles Paul and Barnabas are on their first missionary journey they come to the city of Antioch in Pisidia, and there in the synagogue, as they preached Paul quoted Psalm 2:7

Acts 13:29-33

29 Now when they had fulfilled all that was written concerning Him, they took Him down from the tree and laid Him in a tomb.

30 But God raised Him from the dead.

31 He was seen for many days by those who came up with Him from Galilee to Jerusalem, who are His witnesses to the people.

32 And we declare to you glad tidings—that promise which was made to the fathers.

33 God has fulfilled this for us their children, in that He has raised up Jesus. As it is also written in the second Psalm: 'YOU ARE MY SON, TODAY I HAVE BEGOTTEN YOU.'

In Hebrews 1:5; Hebrews 5:5 the write of Hebrews quotes Psalm 2:7.

What an awesome thought that David would speak of the Incarnation, the Eternal Word becoming flesh, in these terms, 'you are my Son, today, I have begotten you'. We know of course, that in the incarnation, the Eternal Word, laid aside His powers as Deity and took on human form. He submitted Himself to God the Father and yielded to the anointing of God the Spirit. So the Triune God was fully expressed on the earth in the Person of Jesus Christ. And to this incarnate Son of God, the Father said, 'you are my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased'.

In Psalm 16:1-7 we see a life committed to God. This was true in David's life as he sought to live righteously before God. This was truly embodied and fully expressed in the earthly life of Christ, the Son of God.

The Bible teaches us that Jesus Christ came, died on the Cross to pay for our sins so we could be forgiven and brought into the family of God. He rose up again the third day, and He is alive today. He came as the incarnate Son of God, so that He could bring many sons and daughters to glory and be the captain (chief leader, pioneer, author) of our salvation (Hebrews 2:10).

As the Incarnate Son of God, Our Captain. He is our Model. Our Perfect Example. To know how to live as a son and daughter of God, look to Jesus. Follow Him.

#2, HE WILL NOT SEE CORRUPTION (Psalm 16:8-11)

Psalm 16

8 I have set the LORD always before me; Because He is at my right hand I shall not be moved.

9 Therefore my heart is glad, and my glory rejoices; My flesh also will rest in hope.

10 For You will not leave my soul in Sheol, Nor will You allow Your Holy One to see corruption.

11 You will show me the path of life; In Your presence is fullness of joy; At Your right hand are pleasures forevermore.

This is a powerful ANNOUNCEMENT OF THE RESURRECTION.

Psalm 16:8-11 is quoted by Peter in his inaugural sermon in Acts 2:25-28 with reference to Jesus Christ.

Paul references Psalm 16:10 in his sermon at Antioch of Pisidia, in Acts 13:35.

sheol, or hades in Greek, the place of the dead (This refers to the compartment in hell called 'paradise' or 'Abraham's bosom', that once held Old Testament saints).

He is our Resurrected Savior.

He has conquered the one who had the power of death, the devil (Hebrews 2:14).
He has disarmed all of Satan's hosts and rendered them powerless (Colossians 2:14-15).

Revelation 1:18

I am He who lives, and was dead, and behold, I am alive forevermore. Amen. And I have the keys of Hades and of Death.

As our Resurrected Savior, He has authority over hell, death and the grave. He causes us to overcome. He causes us to live victorious. Because He lives, we also will live. He is our hope beyond the grave.

#3, HE WILL BE SEATED AT THE FATHERS RIGHT HAND (Psalm 110:1)

Psalm 110

1 The LORD said to my Lord, "Sit at My right hand, Till I make Your enemies Your footstool."

This is a powerful ANNOUNCEMENT OF HIS GLORIFICATION.

The Lord Jesus references Psalm 110:1 in speaking of Himself in Matthew 22:41-45.

Peter references Psalm 110:1 in his inaugural sermon in Acts 2:34-35.

Acts 2:32-36

32 This Jesus God has raised up, of which we are all witnesses.

33 Therefore being exalted to the right hand of God, and having received from the Father the promise of the Holy Spirit, He poured out this which you now see and hear.

34 "For David did not ascend into the heavens, but he says himself: 'THE LORD SAID TO MY LORD, "SIT AT MY RIGHT HAND,

35 TILL I MAKE YOUR ENEMIES YOUR FOOTSTOOL." '

36 "Therefore let all the house of Israel know assuredly that God has made this Jesus, whom you crucified, both Lord and Christ."

The apostle Paul, and so also the writer of Hebrews refers to Christ reigning over His enemies and them being made His footstool in 1 Corinthians 15:24-28; Hebrews 10:13.

The Lord Jesus has been glorified and is seated at the Father's right hand.

He has a name above every name (Philippians 2:9-11)

All authority in heaven and earth is His (Matthew 28:18)

And all His enemies will be made His footstool. The devil and all his diabolic hosts, and everything they can conceive, are underneath His feet. All authority and power in heaven and earth belongs to Jesus Christ. He is our glorified King. He has a name above all names.

As our Glorified King, all authority in heaven and earth belongs to Him. He has a name above all names. Kingdom authority flows from His throne unto us, His own. We walk in His authority and dominion and administer that here on earth.

#4, HE IS PRIEST FOREVER (Psalm 110:4)

Psalm 110

4 The LORD has sworn And will not relent, "You are a priest forever According to the order of Melchizedek."

This is a powerful ANNOUNCEMENT OF HIS INTERCESSION as our great High Priest.

Melchizedek was the king of Salem (later Jerusalem) and he was also the priest of the Most High God (Genesis 14:18). Melchizedek is a type, pointing to Jesus. Jesus is the True Priest and True King.

He is a Priest forever after the order of Melchizedek is referenced several times in the book of Hebrews (Hebrews 5:6,10; Hebrews 6:20; Hebrews 7:1-11,15,17,21).

Hebrews 4:14-16

14 Seeing then that we have a great High Priest who has passed through the heavens, Jesus the Son of God, let us hold fast our confession.

15 For we do not have a High Priest who cannot sympathize with our weaknesses, but was in all points tempted as we are, yet without sin.

16 Let us therefore come boldly to the throne of grace, that we may obtain mercy and find grace to help in time of need.

As our High Priest, He represents us before the Father, He lives to make intercession for us, He aids us in our time of need. He is the High Priest of our confession, the words we speak expressing our faith in Him and His Word.

#5, HE WILL LAUGH AT EARTHLY KINGS AND RULERS (Psalm 2:1-5)

Psalm 2

1 Why do the nations rage, And the people plot a vain thing?

2 The kings of the earth set themselves, And the rulers take counsel together, Against the LORD and against His Anointed, saying,

3 "Let us break Their bonds in pieces And cast away Their cords from us."

4 He who sits in the heavens shall laugh; The LORD shall hold them in derision.

5 Then He shall speak to them in His wrath, And distress them in His deep displeasure:

This is a powerful ANNOUNCEMENT OF HIS EXALTATION over all earthly rulers, kingdoms and powers.

Psalm 2:1-2 is mentioned as a Psalm of David and quoted in Acts 4:25-26, when they faced threats from religious leaders and persecutors.

No matter what the strong, the mighty, the powerful of the earth do against the name of Christ, they will not prevail.

God is not in anyway intimidated by their words or efforts.

He who sits in the heavens shall laugh. He will bring all their works to nothing.

As our Exalted Lord, He is King of kings and Lord of Lords. Nothing and no one can stop the advancement of His Kingdom here on earth. To the increase of His government and His Kingdom there will be no end. This Gospel of the Kingdom is being proclaimed in all the nations of the earth.

#6, HE WILL RULE OUT OF ZION OVER THE NATIONS (Psalm 2:6-9; Psalm 110:2,5-7)

Psalm 2

6 "Yet I have set My King On My holy hill of Zion."

8 Ask of Me, and I will give You The nations for Your inheritance, And the ends of the earth for Your possession.

9 You shall break them with a rod of iron; You shall dash them to pieces like a potter's vessel.' "

Psalm 110

2 The LORD shall send the rod of Your strength out of Zion. Rule in the midst of Your enemies!

5 The Lord is at Your right hand; He shall execute kings in the day of His wrath.

6 He shall judge among the nations, He shall fill the places with dead bodies, He shall execute the heads of many countries.

7 He shall drink of the brook by the wayside; Therefore He shall lift up the head.

This is a powerful ANNOUNCEMENT OF HIS CORONATION as King and Ruler.

Psalm 2:6,9 and Psalm 110:2 are used in reference to Jesus Christ in Revelation 12:5, Revelation 19:15 and Revelation 20:4-5. Jesus will rule over the nations with a rod of iron. And He will rule out of Zion. The rod, sceptre, or rule of His power.

Interestingly this is a promise given to the overcoming believer in Revelation 2:26-27. We will rule and reign with Him!

Psalm 110:5-7 refer to the final battle of Armageddon and Christ's conquest over all the opposing armies of the earth. 'He shall drink of the brook by the wayside' a picture depicting a conquering warrior refreshing himself after completing his conquests. 'He shall lift up the head', indicating that He will be exalted over the nations.

As our Coming King, He is coming back to set up His Kingdom on the earth. He will rule from Zion, over all the nations for a thousand years. We shall rule and reign with Him.

#7, SERVE HIM, VOLUNTEER FOR HIM (Psalm 2:11-12; Psalm 110:3)

Psalm 2

11 Serve the LORD with fear, And rejoice with trembling.

12 Kiss the Son, lest He be angry, And you perish in the way, When His wrath is kindled but a little. Blessed are all those who put their trust in Him.

Psalm 110

3 Your people shall be volunteers In the day of Your power; In the beauties of holiness, from the womb of the morning, You have the dew of Your youth.

This is an ANNOUNCEMENT OF OUR MOBILIZATION as His volunteers (willing servants) carrying out His will, empowered by Him.

We are called to serve Him both here in this life and in the life to come.

He alone is worthy to be feared and served.

To "kiss the Son" signifies friendship and submission. It also has the idea of embracing His discipline and receiving His instruction.

We serve Him clothed and arrayed in holiness, with the strength of new life given to us by His Spirit.

As His servants, His volunteers, we live in friendship and submission to Him. We are His ambassadors. we are ambassadors of Christ, we are sons and daughters of the King, we are here to extent Kingdom influence.

SERMON OUTLINE

David spoke prophetically about the incarnation, the resurrection, and glorification of Jesus Christ, about one thousand years ahead of time. In this Resurrection Sunday (Easter Sunday) sermon we look at three Psalms of David (Psalm 2, Psalm 16, Psalm 110 we call them Resurrection Psalms) and highlight the prophetic announcements David made, well ahead of time.
