WHAT IS DIVINE FAVOR?

Divine favor is something that God releases upon His people. This is one of His blessings that He grants us. In this simple study, we explore what divine favor is, what it brings into our lives, and what we can do to receive divine favor.

- What is divine favor?
- What happens when the favor of God is upon us?
- What causes the favor of God to come upon us?

Divine favor is an endowment of God that is released upon a person and gives the person influence, access to people, places or things, unusual opportunities, exaltation, and divine intervention.

The Bible talks about God being impartial (Romans 2:11; Acts 10:34).

Romans 2:11

For there is no partiality with God.

Psalm 34:8

Oh, taste and see that the Lord is good;

Blessed is the man who trusts in Him!

Acts 10:34

Then Peter opened his mouth and said: “In truth I perceive that God shows no partiality.

God loves every person equally and is not a respecter of persons. Yet, in His dealings with mankind, we find that God releases divine favor upon some individuals or upon groups of people at certain points in time, in particular seasons, or moments in their lives. And this is what I want to awaken us to so that we can expect to receive divine favor from God.

Examples of the favor of God coming upon people

Nehemiah

Nehemiah was one such example of a man who received divine favor. The Bible records the story of Nebuchadnezzar, the Babylonian king, who attacked Jerusalem and conquered it (Nehemiah 1,2). He broke the temple and the city walls and took a lot of people as captives to Babylon. There were transitions that took place. The Persian empire overpowered the Babylonian empire. The people of God were in captivity at that time and Nehemiah was serving in the palace of the king as a cupbearer. He was serving whatever the king wanted to drink. In the palace, reports about what was happening in Jerusalem came to Nehemiah. His heart was stirred, and he felt that he really needed to do something about Jerusalem. He told himself, “I need to go back and rebuild the walls of Jerusalem” and started praying.

Nehemiah 1:11

O Lord, I pray, please let Your ear be attentive to the prayer of Your servant, and to the prayer of Your servants who desire to fear Your name; and let Your servant prosper this day, I pray, and grant him mercy in the sight of this man.” For I was the king’s cupbearer.

So, Nehemiah prayed and asked God for mercy in the sight of the king. This was a prayer for divine favor. A couple of days later, Nehemiah goes back to the palace.

Nehemiah 2:1-8

¹And it came to pass in the month of Nisan, in the twentieth year of King Artaxerxes, when wine was before him, that I took the wine and gave it to the king. Now I had never been sad in his presence before.

² Therefore the king said to me, “Why is your face sad, since you are not sick? This is nothing but sorrow of heart.”

So I became dreadfully afraid,

³ and said to the king, “May the king live forever! Why should my face not be sad, when the city, the place of my fathers’ tombs, lies waste, and its gates are burned with fire?”

⁴ Then the king said to me, “What do you request?”

So I prayed to the God of heaven.

⁵ And I said to the king, “If it pleases the king, and if your servant has found favor in your sight, I ask that you send me to Judah, to the city of my fathers’ tombs, that I may rebuild it.”

⁶ Then the king said to me (the queen also sitting beside him), “How long will your journey be? And when will you return?” So it pleased the king to send me; and I set him a time.

⁷ Furthermore I said to the king, “If it pleases the king, let letters be given to me for the governors of the region beyond the River, that they must permit me to pass through till I come to Judah, ⁸ and a letter to Asaph the keeper of the king’s forest, that he must give me timber to make beams for the gates of the citadel which pertains to the temple, for the city wall, and for the house that I will occupy.” And the king granted them to me according to the good hand of my God upon me.

Try and understand what Nehemiah asked the king. He essentially told the king that he wanted to go back to the king’s enemies and help them become strong to defend themselves against the king because, in those days, the walls of the city were one of the primary mechanisms of defense. If they had strong walls built, then they could defend themselves against the enemy. This was an outrageous request from Nehemiah and yet, the king granted him all of it. And remember, Nehemiah was not a big politician or an influential person but just a servant in the palace serving the king. Nehemiah sums up, “The king granted them to me according to the good hand of my God upon me” (Nehemiah 2:8). So, Nehemiah declared that the king granted all these requests because the hand of God was on him. And so,

Nehemiah returned to Jerusalem and told the people to see the distress that they were in and how Jerusalem was laying waste.

Nehemiah 2:18

And I told them of the hand of my God which had been good upon me, and also of the king's words that he had spoken to me. So they said, "Let us rise up and build." Then they set their hands to this good work.

Not only did Nehemiah experience the favor of God this way but also testified about such favor with other people. So, what happened was that the favor of God on Nehemiah attracted people to him. Other people wanted to connect with Nehemiah and be a part of his mission! This is exactly what the favor of God can do for you and me today too!

Nehemiah walked in God's favor and it brought such boldness in the hearts of other people as well that when there was opposition, all of them responded to the opposition saying, "...The God of heaven Himself will prosper us; therefore we His servants will arise and build..." (Nehemiah 2:20). Thus, they knew that they were in a season of divine favor and recognized what God was doing in their midst. They believed that the good hand of God's favor was upon them, and no matter what people said, they were going to rise up and build.

Joseph

Genesis 39 records the story of Joseph being sold by his brothers as a slave to Egypt. There, he served in Potiphar's house and was later thrown into prison.

Genesis 39:21,22

²¹ But the Lord was with Joseph and showed him mercy, and He gave him favor in the sight of the keeper of the prison.

²² And the keeper of the prison committed to Joseph's hand all the prisoners who were in the prison; whatever they did there, it was his doing.

So, even in prison, the keeper of the prison asks Joseph to be in charge. This is divine favor. The keeper did not even think for a moment that Joseph would let himself out and all the other prisoners. Imagine a prisoner overseeing his own cell in a prison!

Acts 7:9,10

⁹“And the patriarchs, becoming envious, sold Joseph into Egypt. But God was with him

¹⁰ and delivered him out of all his troubles, and gave him favor and wisdom in the presence of Pharaoh, king of Egypt; and he made him governor over Egypt and all his house.

God granted favor to Joseph and overnight, he went from being prisoner to being the prime minister of Egypt. This is what the favor of God can do in our lives. In a moment, everything can change.

The people of Israel in Egypt

The people of Israel were slaves for 400 years in Egypt. God spoke to Moses at the beginning of his mission saying, “And I will give this people favor in the sight of the Egyptians; and it shall be, when you go, that you shall not go empty-handed. But every woman shall ask of her neighbor, namely, of her who dwells near her house, articles of silver, articles of gold, and clothing; and you shall put them on your sons and on your daughters. So you shall plunder the Egyptians.” (Exodus 3:21,22). God is telling Moses that He will grant favor to the people of Israel in the sight of the Egyptians—the very ones who held them as slaves all these years. He is telling Moses that when the time comes to take these people out of Egypt, they will be led by Moses into the Promised Land. God clearly tells Moses that because of His favor upon them, the Israelites will not leave Egypt empty-handed.

Exodus 11:3

And the Lord gave the people favor in the sight of the Egyptians. Moreover the man Moses was very great in the land of Egypt, in the sight of Pharaoh's servants and in the sight of the people.

Suddenly, the Egyptians' opinions, perspectives, and what they wanted to do to the Israelites changed. The Lord simply granted the Israelites favor before the Egyptians. Everything changed!

Exodus 12:35-37

³⁵Now the children of Israel had done according to the word of Moses, and they had asked from the Egyptians articles of silver, articles of gold, and clothing.

³⁷Then the children of Israel journeyed from Rameses to Succoth, about six hundred thousand men on foot, besides children.

Also, due to divine favor in the sight of the Egyptians, the Egyptians granted the Israelites whatever they pleased. Thus, they literally plundered the Egyptians. Imagine your "home help" coming and asking you to give her all your gold and clothes. You would think that she was out of her mind. But this is exactly what the Israelites asked the Egyptians after 400 years of slavery. In a moment of divine favor, there was a transfer of wealth from the hands of the Egyptians into the hands of the Israelites. All this happened overnight.

Do you believe God can do that for you and me today? Do you believe God can send seasons of divine favor or moments of divine favor into your life and mine? I believe God can! Times have changed. People have changed. But our God is the God who continues to send out divine favor upon His people. He favors His people and causes things to happen that otherwise would never take place.

WHAT HAPPENS WHEN THE FAVOR OF GOD IS UPON US?

Influence among people

Divine favor gives us influence among people. Nehemiah was a “nobody.” Joseph was a prisoner. The Israelites were slaves. But when the favor of God was upon them, they gained influence. They could speak and things happened in their favor.

Access to people, places, or things

The favor of God gives us access to people, places, and things. Suddenly, God gives us access to the right people, to the right places, to things or wealth when He releases divine favor upon our lives.

Unusual opportunities

The favor of God also brings unusual opportunities—opportunities that others may not have—into our lives.

Brings exaltation

Psalm 89:17

For You are the glory of their strength,
And in Your favor our horn is exalted.

The word “horn” means “leader.” The favor of God brings exaltation.

Releases life

When God releases His favor, what is dying suddenly comes to life. Circumstances in our lives are turned around when the favor of God is released upon us.

Psalm 30:5

For His anger is but for a moment,
His favor is for life;
Weeping may endure for a night,
But joy *comes in the morning.

Psalm 30:11

You have turned for me my mourning into dancing;
You have put off my sackcloth and clothed me with gladness,

WHAT CAUSES THE FAVOR OF GOD TO COME UPON US?

What causes divine favor to be released upon a person's life? Why does divine favor come to certain people at certain points in time? Here are some answers that I found by studying the Bible.

Favor is connected to our assignment

The favor of God is always connected to our assignments. Each one of us has an assignment from God and whenever we are moving into our assignments, the favor of God comes upon us. Here are some examples from the Bible.

Mary

Luke 1:30

Then the angel said to her, “Do not be afraid, Mary, for you have found favor with God.

God could have chosen any young maiden to be the vehicle for the birth of the Messiah. But He chose Mary. She became the “favored one” for a specific assignment—to birth the Messiah.

Jesus

Luke 2:52

And Jesus increased in wisdom and stature, and in favor with God and men.

Nehemiah

Why did Nehemiah experience divine favor? He was moving into the assignment of rebuilding the walls of Jerusalem and so Nehemiah experienced divine favor.

Joseph

Why did Joseph have divine favor? He was moving into the assignment of becoming the prime minister in order to bring deliverance for his people as a fulfillment of the dream.

Esther

Esther experienced divine favor because she had the assignment of bringing deliverance to the Jewish people. Esther was an orphan who could have ended up in life being just a nobody. But the favor of God was upon her. She was selected to be queen to King Ahasuerus. And at the right time, when Esther went to the king to make a request, the king saw her standing in the court, and she found favor in his sight. So, he held out the golden scepter that was in his hand and then Esther went near and touched the top of the scepter. And the king asked her, “What do you wish, Queen Esther? What is your request? It shall be given to you—up to half the kingdom!” Thus, the favor of God was upon her because she was pursuing a particular assignment. Only later did Esther realize that she was pursuing an assignment that would bring deliverance to the people of God.

So, whenever we are in the midst of our assignments, the favor of God will come upon us. This means that if we are doing our own assignments, it disqualifies us to receive these divine moments of favor. However, when we pursue God’s assignments, we become candidates for His divine favor. And God releases that favor because He has assignments for our lives that He wants us to fulfill. That is why, sometimes, unexpected doors open and we get access to people, places, and things that others may not have access to. Sometimes, we find a transfer of wealth into our hands. Other times, we will find people coming under our influence saying, “We want to be a part of that mission.” This is divine favor being poured out on our lives.

But we must also keep in mind that, even after a moment or season of divine favor, we must continue to work and do all that we must do in the natural to work toward the assignment that God has given us. It was in a moment of divine favor that the king granted all of Nehemiah’s requests. But Nehemiah had to follow it up with hard work, working past a lot of opposition, false accusations, internal problems, and so on until he saw the assignment completed.

Be careful not to waste the favor of God released on your life. Saul wasted the good favor that God had shown him and God found someone else, David, to fulfill the assignment.

1 Samuel 15:10,11,16-22

¹⁰ Now the word of the Lord came to Samuel, saying,

¹¹ “I greatly regret that I have set up Saul as king, for he has turned back from following Me, and has not performed My commandments.” And it grieved Samuel, and he cried out to the Lord all night.

¹⁶ Then Samuel said to Saul, “Be quiet! And I will tell you what the Lord said to me last night.”

And he said to him, “Speak on.”

¹⁷ So Samuel said, “When you were little in your own eyes, were you not head of the tribes of Israel? And did not the Lord anoint you king over Israel?

¹⁸ Now the Lord sent you on a mission, and said, ‘Go, and utterly destroy the sinners, the Amalekites, and fight against them until they are consumed.’

¹⁹ Why then did you not obey the voice of the Lord? Why did you swoop down on the spoil, and do evil in the sight of the Lord?”

²⁰ And Saul said to Samuel, “But I have obeyed the voice of the Lord, and gone on the mission on which the Lord sent me, and brought back Agag king of Amalek; I have utterly destroyed the Amalekites.

²¹ But the people took of the plunder, sheep and oxen, the best of the things which should have been utterly destroyed, to sacrifice to the Lord your God in Gilgal.”

²² So Samuel said:

“Has the Lord as great delight in burnt offerings and sacrifices,
As in obeying the voice of the Lord?
Behold, to obey is better than sacrifice,
And to heed than the fat of rams.

Favor is connected to the set time

Psalm 102:13

You will arise and have mercy on Zion;
For the time to favor her,
Yes, the set time, has come.

There are set times in our lives when the favor of God is released upon us for a specific assignment. There is a time—a moment—when divine favor is released in our lives and we are left to wonder how we can experience such favor in spite of not doing anything. That is the season of favor! Our times are in His hands (Psalm 31:15).

In between these set times of favor are times of preparation that prepare us to handle the favor that will come on our lives. Meanwhile, we must remain faithful to the assignment given to us and continue to work in the natural with the grace given to us to fulfill the assignment. And we must not misuse the favor when we receive it so that we can be ready for the next downpour of the favor of God on our lives.

Favor is connected to righteousness

Psalm 5:12

For You, O Lord, will bless the righteous;

With favor You will surround him as with a shield.

Daniel 9:23

At the beginning of your supplications the command went out, and I have come to tell you, for you are greatly beloved; therefore consider the matter, and understand the vision:

Daniel 10:11,19

¹¹ And he said to me, “O Daniel, man greatly beloved, understand the words that I speak to you, and stand upright, for I have now been sent to you.” While he was speaking this word to me, I stood trembling.

¹⁹ And he said, “O man greatly beloved, fear not! Peace be to you; be strong, yes, be strong!”

So when he spoke to me I was strengthened, and said, “Let my lord speak, for you have strengthened me.”

Favor is connected to righteousness. Daniel is a great example of a man who stood for righteousness. He walked in righteousness through difficult situations. God called him “greatly beloved.” God will bless the righteous. He will surround them with favor like a shield (Psalm 5:12). So, when we are walking in righteousness, we are surrounded with divine favor. So, no matter who meets us, they will come into contact with this invisible favor—a shield of favor.

Proverbs 3:3,4

³Let not mercy and truth forsake you;

Bind them around your neck,

Write them on the tablet of your heart,

⁴And so find favor and high esteem in the sight of God and man.

Proverbs 12:2

A good man obtains favor from the Lord,

But a man of wicked intentions He will condemn.

There are two things that God really wants us to keep in our hearts.

- (1) Mercy, which is compassion, and
- (2) Truth, which is integrity, uprightness, and honesty.

God says that if we maintain these two things, we find favor and high esteem before God and before man. So, what attracts favor to our lives is when we are walking with mercy and truth.

Favor is connected to wisdom and understanding

Proverbs 8:35

For whoever finds me (wisdom) finds life,
And obtains favor from the Lord;

Proverbs 13:15

Good understanding gains favor,
But the way of the unfaithful is hard.

Proverbs 14:35

The king's favor is toward a wise servant,
But his wrath is against him who causes shame.

Favor is connected to wisdom and understanding. Because, when we choose to walk with wisdom and understanding, we also find life and obtain favor. When God knows that we will handle correctly what He gives us, He will bestow favor. So, we must learn to value wisdom and understanding thus, positioning us to receive the favor of God on our lives.

Psalm 106:4

Remember me, O Lord, with the favor You have toward Your people.
Oh, visit me with Your salvation,

Psalm 119:58

I entreated Your favor with my whole heart;
Be merciful to me according to Your word.

Proverbs 22:1

A good name is to be chosen rather than great riches,

Loving favor rather than silver and gold.

I want to encourage you to do the following:

- Pray for divine favor.
- Position yourself for divine favor.
- Expect to receive divine favor.

Ask God for favor with your whole heart because this blessing of divine favor can do amazing things in your life. In moments of favor, in seasons of favor, you can receive things which money will not be able to buy. What money could Joseph have paid to be transferred from the prison to being a prime minister? What money could Esther have paid to become queen? What money could Nehemiah have given the king to have all his requests granted to him?

Be it in your job, career, business, ministry, education, or any other area, ask God for His favor to be released on your life. You can entreat the Lord for favor. And when that favor is poured out on you, in a moment, extraordinary things will happen, opportunities will open up, your circumstances will change, and He will turn your mourning into dancing.

PRAYER

Almighty God,

I will walk with wisdom and righteousness. I am positioning myself to receive divine favor and I expect to receive divine favor! Also, in between those intervals of set times of favor, I will stay faithful to Your call. I do not want to miss out on the next set time of favor that You have for my life when things will change suddenly.

In Jesus' name, Amen!

STEWARDING GOD'S FAVOR

Receiving God's favor upon us is simply a work of grace. God extends favor upon us and we position ourselves to receive. However, what we do after that is especially important. How we steward the favor of God will determine if we progress in our assignments and if God's purposes are ultimately fulfilled. Also, properly stewarding God's favor will determine if there will be a continued release of favor because, in His Kingdom, faithfulness with the little positions us to receive even more.

In the Bible, we see people who were good stewards of divine favor. A few examples would be Joseph who, having received divine favor and becoming prime minister in a foreign land, stayed true to the Lord, fulfilled his assignment, and even extended that favor to his brothers who had wronged him.

David experienced divine favor that took him from being a simple shepherd to becoming a mighty king in Israel. Though he made mistakes in his life, he walked in love and fear of the Lord till the end. He honored people around him and was a good steward of the favor that God had bestowed on his life.

Nehemiah is another outstanding example. Even after fulfilling his assignment of seeing the walls of the city of Jerusalem rebuilt, and being acknowledged as leader (governor), he refused to indulge in privileges that he could have enjoyed. In his own words, he says, "Moreover, from the time that I was appointed to be their governor in the land of Judah, from the twentieth year until the thirty-second year of King Artaxerxes, twelve years, neither I nor my brothers ate the governor's provisions. But the former governors who were before me laid burdens on the people, and took from them bread and wine, besides forty shekels of silver. Yes, even their servants bore rule over the people, but I did not do so, because of the fear of God. Now that which was prepared daily was one ox and six choice sheep. Also fowl were prepared for me, and once every ten days an abundance of all kinds of wine. Yet in spite of this I did not demand the governor's provisions, because the bondage was heavy on this people.” (Nehemiah 5:14,15,18)

Esther experienced divine favor and became queen. And she willingly risked her life and place of influence for the sake of the people of God.

Like this, there are many others who were good stewards of God's favor on their lives.

However, we also see those who wasted the favor that God had bestowed. King Solomon—favored by God with great wisdom, wealth, influence, and peace—was led astray by his love for women. This ruined an otherwise glorious reign in Israel. King Hezekiah was a good king in Judah who saw a revival of righteousness and returning to the Lord. “The Lord was with him; he prospered wherever he went” (2 Kings 18:7a). He also saw God give him great deliverance and victory. And yet, he made a major mistake toward the end of his reign. He did not protect what God had entrusted to him and did not pass it on as a legacy to the next generation. Instead, he exposed Judah to the king of Babylon that eventually led to the land being taken captive by the Babylonians (2 Kings 20:12-20).

Here are some important things that we need to do to properly steward the favor that God releases upon our lives.

Give God all the glory

Psalm 115:1

Not unto us, O Lord, not unto us,
But to Your name give glory,
Because of Your mercy,
Because of Your truth.

As recipients of God's favor on our lives, we must ensure that we keep our eyes on Him and give Him the praise, honor, and glory for what we have received out of His mercy.

Share the blessing of divine favor

Nehemiah 8:10

Then he said to them, “Go your way, eat the fat, drink the sweet, and send portions to those for whom nothing is prepared; for this day is holy to our Lord. Do not sorrow, for the joy of the Lord is your strength.”

While we enjoy the favor of God upon us, we must remember to share it with those around us. Some people around us may be going through different seasons of life—perhaps through some struggles, some needs, and challenges. We must pour out of the goodness upon our lives into theirs. God blesses us so that we can be a blessing.

Do not abuse God's favor

God's favor is not meant to be lavished only upon us. Neither should we abuse or misuse what God has entrusted to us. God's favor on us does not mean that we are better than others. God's favor on us does not mean that we are more loved than others.

Continue to grow

While a season of favor is to be enjoyed, it is not meant to become a “parking spot” in our journey with God. God desires that we continue to move from glory to glory being transformed into His image. Every season of favor must propel us forward into greater heights and deeper depths in God. It must move us into greater levels of consecration, discipline, and sacrifice for the sake of His Kingdom. The more He gives to me, the more of myself I lay on the altar.

Protect what has been given

Favor must be protected. We must guard properly what God has given. There is an enemy who seeks to turn the good that God has bestowed on us into reasons for disaster. The enemy seeks to steal, kill, and destroy. It was when king David had seen great success and decided to “let his guard down” for a while that he fell into sin with Bathsheba. So, we need to be constantly vigilant to guard the favor released on our lives. Usually, favor attracts all kinds of people toward us. Not all of them come with the right motives. Many come with the idea of leveraging the favor upon our lives for their own selfish agendas. Be watchful of “partnerships” and “alliances” that you enter into during your season of favor. Keep everything clean and pure. Refuse to compromise and always walk in the light. Stay away from people whose heart motives, life examples, or standards do not adhere to the Word of God.

Pass it on to succeeding generations

Favor is a legacy that we must steward and can pass on to succeeding generations. When we teach those who come after us about the goodness of God and how to be good stewards of His goodness, we are positioning them to receive and run with the favor that we have experienced. If we experience divine favor and fail to help succeeding generations understand what it takes to walk in divine favor, all that we have will surely be wasted and diminished. However, if succeeding generations are trained how to walk in divine favor, what began with us will continue to grow, increase, and further the purposes of God for generations to come.

DO YOU KNOW THE GOD WHO LOVES YOU?

About 2000 years ago, God came into this world as a man. His name is Jesus. He lived a perfectly sinless life. Since Jesus was God in flesh, everything He said and did reveal God to us. The words He spoke were the very words of God. The things He did were the actions of God. Jesus did many miracles on the earth. He healed the sick and suffering. He opened blind eyes, unstopped deaf ears, made the lame to walk and healed every kind of sickness and disease. He fed the hungry by miraculously multiplying a few loaves of bread, calmed the storm and did many other wonderful things.

All these actions reveal to us that God is a good God who wants people to be well, whole, healthy and happy. God wants to meet the needs of people.

So why then would God decide to become a man and step into our world? Why did Jesus come?

All of us have sinned and done things that are unacceptable before the God who created us. Sin has its consequences. Sin is like a great unsurpassable wall between God and us. Sin separates us from God. It prevents us from knowing and having a meaningful relationship with the One who created us. Therefore, many of us try to fill this void with other things.

Another consequence of our sins is eternal separation from God. In God's court, the penalty for sin is death. Death is eternal separation from God in hell.

But the good news is that we can be free from sin and be restored to God. The Bible says, “For the wages [payment] of sin is death, but the gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord” (Romans 6:23). Jesus paid for the sins of the whole world when He died on the cross. Then, three days later He rose again, showed Himself alive to many and then went back into heaven.

God is a God of love and mercy. He does not wish that any person be lost in hell. And so, He came to provide a way for the entire human race to be free from sin and its lasting consequences. He came to save sinners—to rescue people like you and me from sin and eternal death.

To receive this free forgiveness of sins, the Bible tells us that we have to do just one thing—accept what the Lord Jesus Christ did on the cross and to believe in Him wholeheartedly.

“... through His name, whoever believes in Him will receive forgiveness of sins” (Acts 10:43).

“that if you confess with your mouth the Lord Jesus and believe in your heart that God has raised Him from the dead, you will be saved” (Romans 10:9).

You too can receive forgiveness and cleansing for your sins if you will believe in the Lord Jesus Christ.

The following is a simple prayer to help you decide to believe in the Lord Jesus Christ and what He has done for you on the cross. This prayer will help you express your acceptance of what Jesus has done for you and receive forgiveness and cleansing for your sins. This prayer is only a guideline. You can also pray in your own words.

Dear Lord Jesus, today, I have understood what You did for me on the cross. You died for me, you shed Your precious blood and paid the penalty for my sins so that I could be forgiven. The Bible tells me that whoever believes in You will receive forgiveness for their sins.

Today, I decide to believe in You and to accept what You did for me by dying for me on the cross and rising again from the dead. I know I cannot save myself by my own good works, and neither can any other human save me. I cannot earn forgiveness for my sins.

Today, I believe in my heart and say with my mouth that You died for me, You paid the penalty for my sins, You rose again from the dead, and by faith in You, I receive forgiveness and cleansing for my sins.

Thank You, Jesus. Help me to love You, to know You more and to be faithful to You.

Amen.

ABOUT ALL PEOPLES CHURCH

Our vision at All Peoples Church is to be salt and light in the city of Bangalore, a voice to the nation and to the nations.

All Peoples Church is a Jesus loving, Word focused, Spirit filled, family church, an equipping center, a missions base and a world outreach.

- As a family church, we grow together as a community in Christ-centered fellowship, caring and serving each other in love as the assembly of God.
- As an equipping center, we empower and equip every believer to live victoriously, mature into Christlikeness and fulfill God's purposes for their lives.
- As a missions base, we engage in meaningful ministry to bless our city, nation and the nations with the full Gospel of Jesus Christ through the Word of God and supernatural demonstrations of the power of the Holy Spirit.
- As a world outreach, we serve locally and globally by nurturing godly leaders and Spirit-filled churches who can impact their regions for the Kingdom of God.

At APC, we are committed to presenting the complete, uncompromised Word of God in the anointing and demonstration of His Holy Spirit. We believe that good music, creative presentations, brilliant apologetics, contemporary ministry techniques, the latest technology and so on, can never substitute the God-ordained approach of proclaiming the Word in the power of the Holy Spirit with signs, wonders, miracles and gifts of the Holy Spirit (1 Corinthians 2:4,5; Hebrews 2:3,4). Our theme is Jesus, our content is the Word, our method is the Holy Spirit's power, our passion is people and our goal is Christ-like maturity.

With our main base in Bangalore, All Peoples Church has several other church locations in India. To get a current listing and contact information of All Peoples Church locations, please visit our website at apcwo.org/locations or send an email to contact@apcwo.org.

PARTNER WITH ALL PEOPLES CHURCH

All Peoples Church ministers beyond its own borders as a local church by reaching out across India, especially North India, with a special focus on (A) Strengthening Leaders, (B) Equipping young people for ministry and (C) Building up the Body of Christ. Several training seminars for young people and ‘Christian Leaders’ Conference’ are held throughout the year. In addition, several thousands of copies of publications are distributed free of cost in English and other Indian languages with the purpose of equipping believers in the Word and in the Spirit.

We invite you to partner with us financially by sending either a one-time gift or a monthly financial gift. Any amount that you can send to help us in this work across our nation will be greatly appreciated.

You can send your gift by cheque / bank draft payable to “All Peoples Church” to our office address. Else, you can remit your contribution directly by bank transfer using our bank account details.

ALL PEOPLES CHURCH BIBLE COLLEGE

apcbiblecollege.org

All Peoples Church Bible College and Ministry Training Center in Bangalore, India, provides Spirit-filled, anointed, hands-on training and equipping for ministering in the supernatural power of the Holy Spirit along with a doctrinally sound and intellectually stimulating study of God's Word. We believe in developing the whole person for ministry emphasizing godly character, deep roots in the Word of God and powerful demonstrations of signs, wonders and miracles, all flowing out of an intimate relationship with the Lord.

At All Peoples Church Bible College (APC-BC), in addition to sound teaching, we emphasize the love of God in demonstration, the anointing and presence of the Holy Spirit and the supernatural work of God. Several young men and women have been trained and sent out to fulfill God's call over their lives.

We offer three programs.

- One-year Certificate in Theology and Christian Ministry (C.Th.)
- Two-year Diploma in Theology and Christian Ministry (Dip.Th.)
- Three-year Bachelor's in Theology and Christian Ministry (B.Th.)

Classes are held each weekday, Monday to Friday, 9:00 a.m.-12 noon, Indian Time (UTC+5:30). We offer three learning options.

- On-Campus: Attend in-person classes at the campus
- Online: Attend live lectures online
- E-Learning: Self-paced learning through the online portal apcbiblecollege.org/elearn

To apply online, and for more information about the college, curriculum, eligibility criteria, tuition costs and to download the application form, please visit apcbiblecollege.org.

God loves every person equally and is not a respecter of persons. Yet, in His dealings with mankind, we find that God releases divine favor upon some individuals or upon groups of people at certain points in time, in particular seasons or moments in their lives.

Divine favor is an endowment of God that is released upon a person and gives the person influence, access to people, places or things, unusual opportunities, exaltation and divine intervention. This is what I want to awaken us to so that we can expect to receive divine favor from God.
